THE RALEIGH NEWS.

VOL. XVI.--11. RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 13, 1879. $5.00 PER ANNUM

THE STRICKEN CITY.

YELLOW JACK REIGNS TILL JACK FROST APPEARS.

Appeals for aid---A movement started in Pittsburg---One Hundred and Fifty Orphans Needing Care.

MEMPHIS Sept. 12.—A call made on the Federal soldiers for blankets and provisions on the 9th inst. by H. A. Hill is discountenanced here by Southern and Northern men generally. The charge that the Howard Association and city government fails to provide is denounced as false by General W. J. Smith, a prominent ex-Federal officer and President of the Howard Association. No discrimination is made in the distribution of supplies.

ANOTHER APPEAL.

The Preachers Aid Association, colored, appeal for aid. They have one hundred and fifty orphans under their care. Rev. A. Holmes is custodian for contributions.

AND STILL ANOTHER.

PITTSBURG, Penn., September 12.—Mr. Langstaff, President of the Howards, yesterday visited many business sufferers and to-day a meeting will be held contemplating measures for their relief.

THE SITUATION.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 12.—There was one new case. Seven deaths have been reported since yesterday, among which were J. B. Pioggis, Mrs. E. C. Barter, Mary D. Lee, William Lee, and R. G. Stoddard. Rev. Father William Walsh, of St. Bridget's Church, was stricken last night at Camp Father Mathews. Rained all day.

AID BEING FORWARDED.

MEMPHIS, September 12.—The following telegrams were received to-day:

NEW YORK, September 12th.

To W. J. Smith, Acting President Howard Association, Memphis:

I send you by telegraph an additional $5,000 to-day.

(Signed), JAY GOULD.

PITTSBURG, Pa., September 12th.

To W. J. Smith, Acting President Howard Association, Memphis:

Draw at sight for $1,000 for the benefit of the Howard Association.

(Signed), JOHN R. MCCLURE, Treasurer Pittsburg Relief Committee.

THE FEVER AT MORGAN CITY.

WASHINGTON, September 12.—Telegrams received by the National Board of Health to-day report five new cases of yellow fever at Morgan City, and two mild cases in the infected district at New Orleans.

The Strike a Failure.

FALL RIVER, September 12.—The appearances are unfavorable to the strikers. Many express their readiness to return to work, while their places are rapidly filling by new hands. It is believed that the strike is practically ended. The spinners are seeking a conference with the Board of Trade, with a view to compromising difficulties, but the Board refuses to meet them.

Liverpool Cotton Sales.

LIVERPOOL, September 12.—Sales for the week 48,000. Speculators took 4,000; exporters took 6,000; forwarded from the ships' side 4,000; actual export 6,000; total import 11,000; American 4,000; total stock 341,000, American 205,000; amount of cotton at sea 118,000, American 26,000.

Positively Refuses.

MILWAUKEE, September 12.—Mitchell, the Democratic candidate for Governor, whose unwillingness to serve was cabled from Europe in advance of the convention's action, now positively refuses to be a candidate.

Russian Affairs.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 12.—Important changes in the diplomatic service are still rumored, including the appointment of Czarewitch as chief of the Imperial guard and commander of the military district of St. Petersburg.

Secretary Evarts' Movements.

TORONTO, Sept 12.—Secretary Evarts, after being further entertained, left today for Niagara Falls where he will meet the British Agricultural Commission. Hanlan leaves for Rochester to-day to complete arrangements with Courtney for next month's race.

The Presidential Tour.

CINCINNATI, O., September 12.—The President and his family were tendered an excursion to-day to High Bridge, over Kentucky river, after which a reception by the Lincoln Club closed the day's festivities.

Retiring from Public Life.

PARIS, September 12.—Von Beust, the German ambassador, will resign and return to private life.

A Famine Apprehended.

BUCHAREST, September 12.—The drought continues in Roumania, and a famine is apprehended unless the Government assists the inhabitants.

A Forger Pardoned.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 12.—Robert Atwood, a noted forger, has been pardoned by Governor Blackburn, after six years servitude. Atwood is of good family and public sentiment favored his pardon.

Gold for the United States.

PARIS, September 12.—The financial newspaper, Cote Europeene, says twenty-eight million francs' worth of French gold will leave for the United States this week.

Heavy Forgery.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Charles R. Titus and Samuel T. Hoyt were arrested on a charge of forging a $100,000 check on J. B. Colgate & Co.

His Turn Now.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12.—Secretary McCrary is visiting the Schuylkill coal regions.

Deserting the Sinking Ship.

NEW YORK, September 12.—Ex-Governor Hoffman resigns from the Tammany society and purposes supporting Robinson.

Reducing the Rates.

NEW YORK, September 12.—The World reduces its price to two cents.

Russia at the Bottom.

LONDON, September 12.—Evidence accumulates going to prove that the revolt in Cabul is due to Russian influences. Serious riots are now proceeding in Cabul, and many traitors and citizens are reported killed. A movement for the general rising against the British on the 15th is now making. The story of warlike measures by the British in Morocco is now denied.

LONDON, September 12.—A dispatch to this evening's Standard from Mooltan states that Herat, Badakashan and Balkh have all revolted against the Ameer. Holy war is being preached throughout Afghanistan. The Press Association announces that telegrams to the government confirm the apprehensions of organized opposition by the population. The Viceroy, however, is sanguine of speedy success. It is believed that preparations are making for an advance, in sufficient force, to pursue the Heratee regiments. It is stated that General Donald Stewart will have supreme command in Afghanistan.

Cotton Brokers' Circular.

LIVERPOOL, September 12.—This week's circular of the Liverpool Cotton Brokers' Association says: "Cotton was in fair demand throughout the week, and though the market was quiet, prices had a hardening tendency, with limited business. Last week's quotations are unchanged. American was in fair request, and after an advance of 1-16 pence in the early part of the week, quotations were unchanged. Sea Island was in pretty good request, and prices are unchanged. Futures opened quiet but firm, and prices gradually hardened to 3-32 pence for September delivery and 1-16 for other positions. On Wednesday there was a dull market and improvement was lost except for September delivery. On Thursday the tone was weak and further declined 1-16 pence.

Murder on Shipboard.

NEW YORK, September 12.—The ship Henry F. Sanford sailed Wednesday laden with railroad iron and boilers for Calcasieu Pass, Louisiana. Yesterday she returned to Staten Island in consequence of murder having been committed on board, and the captain and five of the crew are in Richmond county jail. A sailor named Daniel Cavanagh was charged with killing William Hogan, a messmate, during an altercation. Hogan is described as a quarrelsome fellow who endeavored to provoke Cavanagh to fight. The latter struck him with a handspike from the effects of which he died the same evening. The crew refusing to go to sea with a corpse, she returned.

Lynching Prevented.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., September 12.—A man named Bailes was sentenced to hang at Athens, Alabama, to-day. The case was appealed to the Supreme Court for the next term, and the sentence suspended. Bailes murdered his wife, and lynch law was prevented with difficulty when first arrested. About three thousand people assembled at noon to-day, broke into jail and took Bailes half a mile from town for the purpose of hanging him. Not a man would tie the knot. The sheriff then jumped into a wagon, pistol in hand, and drove back with Bailes and lodged him in jail. The crowd then slowly dispersed.

LATE NEWS NOTES.

The trial of Bucholz for the killing of Schulte, the German miser, last winter, is in progress at Bridgeport, Conn. The evidence against the prisoner is very strong.

A maiden living at Wurtsboro, Sullivan county, N. Y., picked up a small cub the other day while looking for a cow, but let it drop when the old bear growled behind a stump.

In New York on Wednesday morning, Nelson Prudhomme, a night watchman on a tug, was found dead on the boat's deck. The deed is supposed to have been committed by river pirates.

The Cincinnati exposition was formally opened Wednesday in the presence of an immense concourse of people. President Hayes made a brief address, congratulating his hearers on the evidences of increased national prosperity, and predicting a bright future for the republic.

Colonel Thomas A. Scott, president of the Pennsylvania railroad, arrived in Philadelphia Wednesday, from Liverpool, by the steamship Ohio. In anticipation of his arrival a large delegation of friends and officials associated with him in the management of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company were present on the dock when the Ohio reached her wharf, and tendered him a hearty welcome.

Rev. William Patton, D. D., who arrived at New Haven, Connecticut, from Europe on Saturday last, died suddenly on Tuesday night of congestion of the lungs, aged 61 years. He was well known and was an author of considerable repute. He leaves five children, one of whom, William W. Patton, is president of the Howard University at Washington, D. C.

Alexander Bryce, Jr., formerly a prominent Republican politician in South Carolina, was shot dead on Monday night on the highway near his home in Oconee county, S. C. The assassinis not known, but it is said that politics had nothing to do with the crime.

Philip and Nathaniel Shoop, of Jackson township, Pa., were arrested on Saturday last, on suspicion of having murdered Michael Bogan, an old peddler, who disappeared mysteriously in October, 1873. The affair has since been investigated, and yesterday a telegram was received at Harrisburg from Philadelphia, stating that Bogan had died there on Sunday, and would be buried yesterday.

An outbreak has taken place in Carter county, Ky., between the Underwood and Holbrook families. Last Friday 'Squire Holbrook was shot and killed by a party in ambush, and on the Monday following one of the Underwoods was shot by a member of the Holbrook faction. Both parties are reported arming.

Let the Foxes Beware.

Danbury Reporter.

The press gang of the State will, no doubt, breathe more freely should we tell them the Great Republican Tramp for 1886, Thomas Settle, is now giving his mind recreation, before mounting the Presidential chariot, by a very desperate fox campaign in this county. We have not seen him, as yet, but we have heard his "horn."

SKINNED AND SCALPED.

MR. KELLY'S INNOCENT LAMBS BEATEN ANOTHER WAY.

A Midnight Raid on Tammany Delegates—The Avenging Angel at Work—Beebe's Great Loss.

New York Sun, 11th.

Ex-Alderman Purroy, ex-Alderman Bennett, ex-Justice Anthony Hartman, Coroner Croker, Frank Purroy, and H. Bracken, occupied the same room in the Vanderbilt House, Syracuse, last night. Bracken appears to have been the last one in bed. He left the door unlocked, with the key on the outside. Fatigued with the active duties of the day, all slept soundly. At 7 o'clock this morning, Purroy awoke, rolled over, and looked for his watch to ascertain the time. Before retiring he had slung his vest in a chair at the side of the bed. The watch was gone. It was a valuable timepiece, presented by John B. Haskin on behalf of his constituents, when Mr. Purroy was made president of the Board of Alderman. The discovery alarmed Mr. Purroy. To quiet his nerves, he rang the bell and ordered a morning cocktail. It came. The Alderman's breeches were ransacked for a quid pro quo, and a fresh discovery was made. The thief had stolen $300 from the fob pocket.

At this moment Coroner Croker awoke. An examination showed that he had lost $75 in money and Granger jewelry. The destroying angel had visited the delegation.

Frank Purroy, a brother to the Alderman, lost $90 and his watch and chain.

Henry Bracken was minus a valuable timepiece.

The diamond headlights had disappeared from Alderman Bennett's shirt front, and Judge Hartman had been robbed of $3 and a pair of pantaloons. The loss of the latter was irreparable. The Judge sent to all the tailors in Syracuse, but there was not in the whole city a pair of breeches large enough to fit him. He sat upon the side of his bed during the day waiting for them.

The raid appears to have been general throughout the city. Clerk Adamson of the Excise Board lost a Tobias lever, and Peter Masterson was robbed of $75. It was rumored that ex-Congressman George Beebe had also been robbed. When questioned by a reporter, he replied: "I have lost nothing but my reputation."

"Well, heaven help the man that got that," said a Robinson delegate.

The Tammany men were not the only sufferers. One of the Ogallalla delegation was stripped of everything but a night shirt. Judge Callahan raised a subscription for him, and he appeared at the convention so disguised in store clothes that his mother-in-law's grandmother would have failed to recognize him.

State Treasurer Mackin was robbed of his watch and chain, all his money, and his diamond studs. The diamonds were stones of the first water, bought in Switzerland years ago. They belonged to the Senator's brother, and are valued as a souvenir. Senator Goodwin, of the Oneida district, was also robbed of his watch and chain and all the money in his pockets. A temperance delegate, a guest at the Temperance Hotel, lost his watch and $1,000 in money. At midnight, Judge Tony Hartman remained in his room, unable to procure a pair of breeches in Syracuse. He says he has telegraphed to his tailor in New York, and he is anxiously awaiting the arrival of the morning train.

The Sickly Adulation of Public Men by the Press.

Correspondence of the News.

I respect the Press. It is a great power for good. I have therefore been pained to hear the frequent inquiry, "Why is it, that in this State our papers which owe so little to the politicians are so prompt to puff and laud them, and to excuse their shortcomings, and are so slow to denounce their breaches of duty and the injuries caused thereby to the public who are the real supporters of the press."

It is unquestionably a fact. That the majority of the press are honest and intend to defend the rights of the people is also true. It is probable that the offending parties seek to cover up their public shortcomings by assiduous appeals to the private ear and kindly feelings of editors, who sometimes are persuaded to forget that they are sentinels on the watch tower and that their silence in the face of a public wrong is treason. It is also in a greater degree caused by the fact, not observed enough heretofore, still a fruitful source of temptation to the press in North Carolina, that several of the editors are candidates for a place at the hands of the legislature. This often makes them more observant of the smiles of politicians than of the rights of the people. Heretofore the candidacy of the Raleigh papers for the public printing and of some of the country editors for legislative clerkships has trammeled and shackled this great engine and mouthpiece of the people. It is to be hoped that such days are passing away and that patronage will no longer nullify the patriotism of the press.

A bold outspoken press, which represents the people, will find surely its reward. The people want bold, fearless watch dogs which are watchful for their rights, and who can not be bribed into silence by a slice of fat bacon cast by a sinning but cunning office-holder.

As a sample of a manly outspoken utterance on behalf of the people I beg leave to add the following extract from the Chapel Hill Ledger. It is on the great wrong lately perpetrated against the cause of education and against the poor children of the men who are condemned now, under penalty of the sheriff's hammer, to raise a quarter of a million dollars a year on the points of their plows, hoes and shovels as a free gift to two rich railroad corporations.

Mrs. Spencer evidently is not afraid of losing somebody's vote for a clerkship in the legislature and does not forget that as a public organ she owes duties to society, to truth, to justice and to the cause of popular rights. Would to heaven that some male pensioners of the press were half as manly. she says:

"The Supreme Court has adjourned leaving the School Bill unsettled and unsigned. Some of our exchanges support the bench in this decision. We do not. The bill as our readers remember, was unanimously adopted by the legislature, and ought to have been signed by the proper officers at the proper time when all the other bills were signed. But owing to some extraordinary and unaccountable inadvertence, or overlooking on somebody or other's part, this, among the most important to the people of the State of all the acts of the late legislature was forgotten, mislaid, or postponed, and when called for was found without the signatures which alone were lacking to make it a law.

"The Court has been in session three months. We have been waiting and abiding as usual. The very day that the bench dissolves we learn that they decline to 'coerce' Messrs. Moring and Robinson. These gentlemen having neglected their duty in the first instance and having evaded it in the second, may now sit down under the shadow of the Supreme Court bench with delight and feel that it is owing to their persistence in abiding by the law that the children of the poor men of North Carolina will be for two years shut out from their privileges; that the popular move in favor of education has been retarded, and the whole State disappointed and disgusted.

"Let us have a little less puffing of our public men, and a little stricter understanding with them as to the terms on which we place them in positions of trust and profit, and the expectation we form in the manner which they are to discharge their duties to the public."

STATE NEWS.

[Correspondence under this head is furnished by regular contributors to the News.]

PITT.

GREENVILLE, September 10.—The Convocation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this place was a success. Present, eight clerical and five lay delegates. The ladies of that church propose to give an ice-cream supper during court week. The union meeting of Baptists to have taken place here on the fifth Sunday in November has been changed to Halifax county. I believe the union meeting is still to be held here, perhaps on that remarkable day, the fifth Sunday in February. The weather is clear and cold with only an occasional shower.

Cotton is opening rapidly, and the "gay and festive" camp meeting negro sings his wild chants while he draws the "mimic snow" from the bolls, and occasionally hides a basket or so for night trade with dishonest merchants.

WAKE.

APEX, September 12.—Weather very dry; nights cool. Crops a little below the average. Cotton one week earlier than usual.

Trade moderate; prospects favorable for an average trade.

Very few depredations. Magistrates and constables idle.

Politics very quiet. Uncle Sam will get the votes if nominated.

Revivals have been held at most of the churches in this section. Apex Baptist church will protract next week.

Real estate has advanced some during the past six months.

Several bales have been ginned. Price paid for picking out 40 cents per hundred.

GREENE COUNTY.

WILLOW GREENE, Sept. 11.—We had a small rain Monday night; it has been cool and clear since.

Trade is growing better every day.

Mr. Ferdinand Robinson was married to Miss Eliza Jones last week—an elopement.

Reuben Joyner, colored, was accidentally shot in the head last Saturday evening while hunting in the woods.

A little daughter of James Flanagan died last Thursday of a very malignant type of diphtheria.

Deer hunting is the social amusement of this section. I had venison for dinner last week, presented by F. T. Carr, Esq.

Cotton picking has commenced, though not in full blast yet.

R. A. L. Carr, Esq., has returned from the North, where he bought a large and well-selected stock of goods, which are now being put upon the shelves.

T. B. Hyman, of Goldsboro, was at this place Tuesday, looking after the cotton interest of this section.

The Vacant Missions.

Washington Star, 11th.

Though the President and Secretary Evarts are absent, the gossip about the English and Russian missions keep up. It is admitted that Galusha A. Grow, of Pennsylvania, has the best chance for the latter place—some going so far as to assert that it has been tendered to him, and that he has signified his willingness to accept. In regard to the English mission, the names of Reuben E. Fenton and ex-Secretary of State Fish are the most prominently mentioned. Mr. Fenton's appointment would, it is urged, further harmonize political matters in New York, and at the same time will the expressed preferences of Secretary Evarts for an English minister thoroughly conversant with the silver question, in view of the pending negotiations looking to the establishment internationally of the bi-metallic standard. These two are the reasons upon which the conclusion is found that he will be the successor of Mr. Welsh. Ex-Secretary Fish is stated to be very prominently considered by the government to fill the vacancy, in view of his diplomatic experience and ability, and the very cordial relations between him and the British government developed while he was Secretary of State under General Grant. The three names given include all that are now talked of as probable men for the two vacancies.

A Relic.

Salisbury News, 11th.

We have before us an eight-dollar bill, continental currency, issued by "The United Collonies," May 9, 1776, No. 84,878. It measures 3 11-16x3⅔ inches, the material being a light card paper. It is the property of Willie M. Wiley. The face reads as follows: "This Bill entitles the Be'rer to receive EIGHT Spanish milled DOLLARS, or the Value thereof in Gold or Silver, according to a Resolution of CONGRESS, Passed at Philadelphia, MAY 9, 1776.

(Signed) "ADAM HUBLEY.

"Jos. A. Evans."

The face also contains a representation of the Irish harp, inclosed in a double circle, in which appear the words "Majora Minoribus Consonant."

The back contains a shamrock leaf, or something similar, in two different positions, and some kind of a flower, with a chechered back-ground. This side also contains the imprint of the printers, Hall & Sellers. The usual decorations are on it that characterize all old-time prints.

He Won but It Killed Him.

James Johnston, a well known negro in Lynchburg, Va., made a bet at the breakfast table that he could eat more fruit than any one present. Silas Jones and Peter Lindsay took up the bet, and all three set to work eating peaches, apples, watermelons and grapes. Johnston won this bet, having eaten one watermelon and a half, one dozen peaches, twelve bunches of grapes and four large apples. He was taken sick an hour after, and died last night.

Aged Horses.

Salisbury Watchman, 11th.

Some of our country friends noticing the death of "old John," the Boyden horse killed by a cow, have notified us that they have older horses than thirty-two years. Mr. George Lippard, of Cabarrus, has a mare in excellent order and serviceable at the mature age of thirty-seven years; and Mr. P. A. Rimer, of the same neighborhood, a horse in daily use at thirty-two years of age.

THE OLD DOMINION.

A TOUR THROUGH THE MOUNTAIN VILLAGES.

Pen Pictures of Powhatan's Proud Province---Poetry and Prose intermingled by the Pedestrian.

Correspondence of the News.

MAX MEADOWS, Wythe Co., Va., September 10.—It haunts me like a vision that I said something of another letter. Unfortunate promise, both for you and me—yet let it be fulfilled. Leaving Lynchburg, the city of "fine inclines" the day I wrote my last, a run of less than six hours brought me to my old home amid these stately and familiar mountains. Along the route glad faces of summer travelers greeted one at almost every mountain village. Liberty, Bufords, Big Lick, Salem, Christiansburg, and many other smiling towns have their quota of Southern visitors, seeking the cool air and delightful verdure of these breezy slopes. Watering places also attract their pleasure and health-seekers, Blue Ridge Springs, Alleghany, Montgomery, White, etc., at some of which points North Carolinians were found.

THE THINGS ONE IS APT TO NOTICE,

who come from Middle Carolina, are; first the mountains, then the grass, then the cattle. The Peaks of Otter rear their lofty crest near Liberty. At Bufords we cross the Blue Ridge. At Christiansburg the Alleghany. Salem sleeps like a queen guarded by faithful and grim servitors. It is well named and one cannot but recall the grand devotion of Watts, or the grander inspiration of the sweet singer of Israel:

"As mountains stood to guard
Old Salem's happy ground."

Nothing so enchants my eye as the broad meadows and sunny slopes covered with grass, and dotted with feeding herds. Away up the hillside to the very crest the waving verdure grows and beautifies the landscape, while shaggy solemn mountains and clear prattling streams are not wanting to fill up the picture.

I am not much of a farmer, and do not know that grass-culture would be profitable in our State. But surely than these broad fields so softly clad with fresh verdure. Watts comes to me again:

THERE IS NO PRETTIER SIGHT,

"Sweet fields beyond the rolling flood Stand dressed with living green," and the outline against the sky is lovely.

Scarcely less attractive is the living adornment of such beautiful farms. I do not refer to the handsome residences with their hospitable and cultivated inmates. It is amusing to the uninitiated to hear the lavish, almost affectionate, praise, which cattle farmers give to their herds. A favorite heifer is described as "of best blood," "exquisite form" "skin soft as silk," a perfect beauty;" yes even "a real lady." Without indulging in such discriminating eulogy, yet, I may say the cattle of this southwest Virginia region are certainly "perfectly lovely." And that not only because they are so large, but because they are of such handsome style with their sleek, rich coats, delicate head and neck, small, oily horns and slender limbs.

I have talked to some of my old friends, urging them to send some of their pure-blooded Short-Horns or of their fatted stock to our State Fair. Doubtless such an exhibition would show better what "beauties of elephantine mould" their cattle are than all my extravagant and elaborate words.

Since my residence here there has sprung up an animated trade in beef cattle with Europe, and since my arrival one of the successful and enterprising cattle men, Major Joseph Floyd, of Pulaski, sent off a cargo to England. Doesn't it seem strange that the should come from southwest Virginia?

Politics engage much attention, in which, however, I shall not venture. The question of the State debt is the absorbing theme of public comment. I had the pleasure of meeting with Colonel Cabell, representing the 5th Congressional (Danville) district, who had been speaking "in behalf of Virginia honor and integrity," at Floyd Court House. It was grateful to a wayfarer to hear words of high praise from him and other Virginia gentlemen of our North Carolina delegation in Congress, especially the "tobacco men" representing the tobacco counties, Scales, Davis and Robbins, etc.

Of course the pleasantest part of my trip has been meeting with old friends. Of matters so personal it does not become one to speak.

"The smiles, the tears, of other years," have been recalled, and "the light of other days" has cost its enchanting glamour over each passing hour. Happy he who hath pleasant memories, happier still he who hath true friends.

ON THE WING.

Female Census Takers.

Baltimore News.

Lady census takers will be a novelty of the next census. It is thought they will be peculiarly adapted to some of the requirements of canvassers, but what these requirements are is not stated. If an inventory of personal property was desired, we can easily understand with what superior intelligence the lady census taker would inquire how many "momie" cloth dresses the female American citizen possesses, and if that lace was real Valenciennes, or that crushed grape scarf or Parole belt was the only one in the house. And then there would be no fooling her as to the ages of the family, for if there is any one thing a woman can do better than another, it is to tell at a glance how old people are—especially those of her own sex. The number of babies in the family and the date of their advent would also be one of the most correct tables in the next census report. Other advantages, too numerous to mention, make it not only expedient but absolutely necessary that lady census takers should be employed for the canvass.

Honor to the Family.

A mysterious dinner party was given some short time ago, by an elderly gentleman, in the Hotel Demuth at St. Petersburg. One morning the gentleman in question called upon Mr. Pintscher, the manager of the Demuth restaurant, and ordered a luxurious repast for six, of which he, himself, made out the menu, selecting from the wine card the costliest vintages. He asked for an estimate of the dinner's cost, paid the amount of his bill in advance, and requested that everything should be prepared for the entertainment of his guests at 7 o'clock precisely the same evening. At that hour he entered the room reserved for his banquet, and took his place at the head of the table. To the chief waiters respectful inquiry, "whether he expected his friends to arrive soon, as the dinner was quite ready," he replied, "They are all here! Let the soup be served forthwith!" By his expressed command the puzzled attendants then proceeded to help the absent guests to course after course, setting down full plates before the empty chairs, and pouring out precious wines into the groups of glasses stationed before each untenanted place. The gentleman ate and drank copiously, now and anon clinking his glass against the masterless goblets ranged upon the table to his right and left. With the first round of champagne he arose and made a speech to his imaginary friends, from the tenor of which oration the waiters gathered that they had been engaged in attending to personages long since defunct. When the gentleman had concluded his remarks he again went through the clinking formality, drained the contents of his glass, and turning to Mr. Pintscher, chilled that amazed functionary's blood by the following ghastly statement: "To-day I celebrate my joyful meeting with my beloved relatives—my dead wife, daughter, and three sons two of whom fell in the last campaign. Do not be afraid; I am not mad. It has done me a power of good to spend this happy hour or so with my family. You may look for me again on this day twelvemonth."

In Schiller's poem, "The Ferry," the same idea was expressed long ago:

"Take, O boatman, thrice thy fee!
Take! I give it willingly;
For this night, unknown to thee.
Spirits twain have crossed with me."

ENGLISH BONE AND MUSCLE.

How it is Flocking to this Country Rather than Starve at Home.

Philadelphia Record, 10th.

Among the arrivals by the American line steamer Lord Gough yesterday was a party of English iron-workers, to the number of about fifteen. They are all broad-chested, hearty-looking fellows and have an air of intelligence quite distinguishable from the major portion of men in the same line of business. They come from Middleboro, a place about one hundred and twenty miles from the city of Chester. The men have been engaged for work at the Catasauqua Iron Works, in Lehigh county, and will start for their destination this morning. They have been engaged to do piece work, and their wages are to be the current rates paid for their class of labor.

In conversation with a Record reporter one of the men stated that the condition of the iron trade in England was most distressing. "Why," said he, "there are thousands of men standing idle, with no prospects of the furnaces and mills starting up. We hear that the iron business is good over here, so we thought we had better come out here and make something rather than starve in the old country. Places have been engaged for a dozen of us, but when some of the boys heard that we were coming out to America they followed with us; but I don't know what they will do. I guess they will find work somewhere. You ask if more are to follow us. Well, now, as for that I can't say, sir; but it is my impression that just as many of the workingmen as can will come to this country and as soon as possible. You see, the main trouble is the times have been so hard the boys have no money, this being especially the case with married men who have families."

Among the other passengers was Mr. De Bruyn, a well-to-do gentleman from England, who comes here for the purpose of settling near Staunton, Virginia. Should he be pleased with that section it is probable a large colony of Englishmen will follow him, and cause the fertile lands of the State of Presidents to blossom as a rose.

Revival.

New Berne Nut Shell, 12th.

We learn that an extensive work of revival has been in progress for some time within the bounds of Carteret, Craven and Jones Circuits of the Methodist Church, under the pastoral care of the Rev. Messrs. Bristow, Beemon and Puckett. On Wednesday morning Rev. J. R. Brooks preached at Oak Grove, on Jones Circuit, and administered baptism to 12 persons. At night he preached again at Lees' Chapel, near Pollocksville, where between 40 and 50 persons asked for the prayers of the Church. The meeting is expected to continue through the present and possibly most of next week. Mr. Puckett is laboring quite zealously, and Mr. Brooks may go out again and assist him during the progress of the meeting.

The Motherly Instinct Still There.

New York Commercial Advertiser.

A whoop-bang sort of a boy, with feet as broad and flat as a pie tin, trotted through the Central Market till he reached a stall kept by a single woman about thirty years old. Hailing there, he yelled out: "Say! say! Your little boy has been run over and killed by the City Hall!" "Oh! oh! heavens—oh!——!" she screamed, as she made a dive under the counter, came up on the other side, and started to follow the boy. After going ten feet she halted, looked very foolish, and all of a sudden remarked: "What a goose I am! Why, I ain't even married!"

An Individual Inquiry of Every Reader.

The opportunities occur for a fortune to every man it is said, some day or another, but how seldom does a man really know the exact opportunity. The newspapers every now and then tell of some person who has drawn a hundred thousand or a thirty thousand dollar prize in the long established Louisiana State Lottery, which is drawn on the second Tuesday of every month, at New Orleans, La. But does it ever strike the reader on reading about the lucky man that a similar good fortune might attend him if he were to send two dollars for the next, which is the 113th drawing, to M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692, or same person at No. 319 Broadway, and see what fortune has in store?

Liberty or Death.

Goldsboro Mail, 12th.

On Monday, in New Hope township, J. H. Grant was deputized by Esquire James F. Kornegay to guard Simon Islay, charged with larceny, to this place for commitment to jail. On the way Islay declared to Grant that he would come no further, and at once made a dash for liberty. Grant fired several shots at the fleeing prisoner, but was uncertain as to the extent of their execution until the dead body of the negro was found some distance off in the woods the following day.

Sudden Death

Wilmington Review, 11th.

We regret to learn of the sudden death on yesterday of Mrs. Mary E Westbrook, consort of Mr. A J. Westbrook, of Rocky Point, Pender county. The deceased lady was very nearly seventy years of age and for some time past has been suffering from an aberration of mind, and on Tuesday, while suffering from this mental disorder, took an opiate which resulted in her death. She leaves a large and respected family to mourn her sad and sudden end.

AMATEUR HEATHENS.

A DETERMINED STAND AGAINST MISSIONARY ASSESSMENTS.

The Failure of a Lot of Small Boys to Introduce Heathenism into Connecticut.

New York Times.

Some two months since Master Jaggars, who had painfully accumulated the sum of twenty-five cents, with a view to an expected circus, was compelled to consecrate fifteen cents to the hated small boys of India. It was this last of a long series of pecuniary outrages that determined him to take a bold stand against missionary assessments, and he, therefore, summoned a mass meeting of small boys on Saturday afternoon at Deacon Pratt's barn, ostensibly with a view to rats, but really in order to propose a plan of defense against heathen encroachments.

Master Jaggars made a moving speech, in which he glowingly described the luxury in which the heathen small boy wallows. "He ain't washed, and he can wear just as little cloze as heserminter. There ain't no school for him, nor no Sunday, you bet. He can go swimmin' every day, and can just lay off on the bank and see the crocodiles scoop in washerwomen and such. Then his backyard is chuck full of tigers and hipopomusses, and no end of snakes, and he can steal his dad's gun and shoot 'em out of the window. This is the chap that rakes in all our money, and I say its mor'n we ought to stand. Now, I move that we all turn heathen ourselves. The folks can't make us wash and go to school if we're heathen, and all the other boys will have to put up their money for us."

It is needless to say that this speech was received with tumultuous applause. Howls of execration went up as the luxuries of the hated heathen were described, and the proposal to adopt heathenism as a profession was unanimously supported.

The details of the scheme were all are ranged by Master Jaggars. A plaster bust ugly enough to serve as an idol, was procured from the house and the amateur heathen placed it on an empty barrel in the barn, and bowed down to it with much gravity. They discarded all their clothing except a towel twisted around the waist, and blackened their entire bodies with burnt cork. There could be no doubt that they were very successful heathen in appearance, and as it was late in the afternoon, they resolved to spend the night in the barn; to breakfast on the spoils of Deacon Pratt's orchard, and to attend Sunday school in a body, in order to collect tribute from the Christian boys. The Sunday school opened as usual the next morning, although the absence of eleven boys created a good deal of remark. Soon after the exercises had begun the teachers were astounded at the entrance of Master Jaggars and his ten associate heathen. It is only fair to say that the heathen behaved themselves with as much propriety as their professional duties would permit. Master Jaggars advanced to the Superintendent and remarked, "If you please, Sir, we've turned heathen. There ain't no foolin' about it. We've got a first class idol, and we don't believe in nothing more. So, if you please, Sir, will you please tell them Christian boys to fork over half of all the the money they've got, and to remember how blessed it is to consecrate it to the real, genuine heathen."

There is no instance on record in which a heathen has been converted so quickly as was Master Jaggars. The superintendent held him by one ear, and at the tenth stroke of the cane Master Jaggars renounced his heathenism and promised to smash his idol and return to the Christian faith without a moment's delay. The other heathen, alarmed by the fate of their leader, fled to the barn, washed themselves, resumed their clothing, and went homeward with sober countenances, singing missionary hymns. The North Meriden revival of heathenism was a disastrous failure, but nevertheless the boldness and originality of the scheme devised by Master Jaggars must command our wonder and admiration.

The School Bill.

Tarboro Southerner.

The Chatham Record comes to the defense of the Speakers, and, ever endeavoring to be fair, we take pleasure in recording it. The Record says after the Speakers discovered their failure to sign the School Bill—the legislature had adjourned—they returned to Raleigh for that purpose.

"The point, however, was raised by gentlemen learned in the law, that they could not legally sign a bill after the adjournment of the legislature, that their signature then affixed would avail nothing. Upon consideration of this point, and after consultation, Messrs. Robinson and Moring declined to sign the bill, holding that they had no right to do so. The Superintendent of Public Instruction obtained the opinion of Attorney-General Kenan, who held that the signatures of these gentlemen affixed after the adjournment would be valid. They preferred, however, in view of the importance and novelty of the question, to have it adjudicated by our highest judicial tribunal."

Now, brother London, Lieutenant-Governor Robinson, as we hear it, did not refuse to sign absolutely, merely saying his signature alone would avail nothing. Nobody doubts that the omission of the signatures was accidental. Nor does a lawyer doubt the probable correctness of the Supreme Court decision, but rumors will spread about these things. The question occurs, why did they not obey the Attorney-General, who advised them to sign after the legislature had adjourned? What changed their opinion after they went to Raleigh, with the purpose of signing? Why were they not satisfied with Judge Eure's decision? Who paid the fees of their lawyers? In this connection a book firm comes to the front.

On the face of the case, being a bill for the advantage of poor school-children, the view, as in the construction of a remedial statute, it seems, should have obtained. One of the best lawyers in North Carolina, an honored resident of another county, says he would have unhesitatingly signed.

Be wise and happy.

If you will stop all your extravagant and wrong notions in doctoring yourself and families with expensive doctors or humbug cure-alls, that do harm always, and use only nature's simple remedies for all your ailments—you will be wise, well and happy, and save great expense. The greatest remedy for this, the great, wise and good will tell you, is Hop Bitters—rely on it. See another column.

Mrs. Potts.

Salisbury Watchman, 11th.

Mrs. Potts, the walkist, arrived here last night and stopped over at the National Hotel, on her return trip from New Orleans to Philadelphia. It was the occasion of a large crowd of anxious spectators, as we learn, at the National last night, who desired to see the woman who had the courage and the power to travel so well.

DAILY NEWS

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1879.

WONDERFUL to relate, the Tribune mentions the Cherokee county Mormon whipping, and doesn't even class it as as another instance of sectional hatred.

IN charming contrast with the assertion of the Republican journals that their candidate will certainly be elected by the people is their calculation that the election will be thrown into the House of Representatives, which is tantamount to no election, the States being evenly divided, and then Vice-President Wheeler will be President on the 4th of March.

THE movement of the English emigrants to Texas, referred to in another column, will work good in two directions—the emigrants will find themselves in a region where land is cheap and fertile and where their industrious habits will be sure to bring them prosperity, and the State will gain a large number of stable, law-respecting citizens.

ALREADY have Mr. Kelly's former adherents commenced to leave him. Yesterday afternoon's dispatches announce that ex-Governor John T. Hoffman has withdrawn from the Tammany organization and will support Governor Robinson. This is a powerful blow, and one that will materially affect the hold that Mr. Kelly has on Tammany. We may expect to see other prominent defections within a week.

THE Northern Democratic editors, with their usual haste to be subservient to the South, are defending the North Carolina bulldozers in their treatment of Judge Tourgee.—Tribune.

As Judge Tourgee in an interview with a representative of the Philadelphia Times stated that he was not driven from the South, and that the statement attributed to him by the Tribune was never made, we do not see that North Carolina needs any defending.

WHILE the New York Tribune is on the repudiation hunt it should turn its attention to Indiana, giving the story of the original "adjustment" something more than thirty years ago, and concluding the narrative with an account of the redemption of the 2 per cent. bonds, in which a corrupt ring, composed mainly of prominent Republicans, aided by a distinguished Republican governor, now deceased, feathered their nests profusely. There is no section, nor is there any one party that has monopolized repudiation.

WE have received a circular on "Ventilation, Drainage, Drinking Water and Disinfectants," issued by the State Board of Health. In the circular issued by the Secretary of the Board to the county superintendents appears the subjoined:

By consultation with Professor Ledoux, the chemist of the Board, a plan has been agreed upon, which will enable him to make for the Board an examination of the drinking waters in the State. The secretary especially desires the co-operation of superintendents of health in this work. It is desirable that several specimens of drinking water should be selected from every county, keeping always in view the necessity of having representative specimens, that a general idea may be obtained of the condition of wells and springs in a given neighborhood, town or city. Specimens recommended by superintendents will have early consideration from the secretary. In every case the packing must be done in accordance with Dr. Ledoux's circular, and the freight expense born by the applicant, as no means have been given the Board for this purpose.

THE NEW YORK CONVENTION.

The expectation that the Tildenites would carry the Convention has been fully realized. Tammany saw it was a hopeless contest and withdrew before the first ballot was fairly commenced. This places the contest in its true light, i. e., that it is not in any sense a "split" of the party, but only a paltry faction fight that John Kelly is making against Mr. Tilden. For years country Democrats have listened with indifference to the rival fulminations of Tammany and anti-Tammany. It was a local quarrel, and they took but little interest in the reports of Mr. Kelly's tyranny; they were glad of his aid, but they knew they were able to control by their heavier weight the famous city organization that had grown to be such a stench in the nostrils of the outside community. And now the domineering policy of Tammany has borne its fruit. Governor Robinson was renominated by a clear majority of fifty-three, and this shows that it was intended to teach the malcontents a lesson; in fact, before the convention was opened reports came in from all sides of the reaction caused in the rural districts by the conduct of Mr. Kelly's adherents. Speech after speech has been made and address after address issued to the Democracy of New York against the renomination of Governor Robinson. These fulminations were accompanied by a threat that they would not support him under any circumstances, and a claim that they numbered sixty thousand voters. They were foolish enough to think that by these means they could frighten the rural Democracy into an abandonment of Mr. Robinson. These trading politicians for once made a terrible mistake. It aroused the Governor's friends throughout the State. Now what are these Tammany braves going to do about it? They are full of bluster now, but sooner or later they will fall into the traces. Should they fail to do so they will find themselves with but few followers. Henry L. Clinton, chairman of the Tammany Hall general committee, and Senator Ecclesine, have warned Mr. Kelly of the folly of his course. He tried the same game at St. Louis; but in spite of him Mr. Tilden was nominated. And now the good sense and the good feeling of the State has refused his dictation. Mr. Robinson had the large majority, and nothing is left for the defeated aspirant but to attempt, along with the destruction of himself, which his failure foreshadows, the destruction of his party, State and National, in which attempt he will again be defeated.

It appears to us a good thing that Governor Robinson was renominated. He has made a good Governor, he is a strong man, and he commands the respect of the Republicans of the State. The action of Tammany considered, his renomination became imperative. No party can afford to submit to such hectoring as John Kelly has ventured to apply to his political companions. The failure to nominate Mr. Robinson would have made the fight Tammany's, and, since the downfall of the Tweed ring, Tammany never has and never can carry the State. Its organization and character and methods are repellant to Democratic ideas. It is an autocracy, fed by official patronage. It is a one-man power, led by a narrow, one-sided despot, overflowing with excitement and vanity.

The quicker Mr. Kelly is made to walk the plank the better for the Democratic party. His room is more desirable than his company. Let him go, and when he is gone let Tammany organize anew upon a liberal basis. Mr. Robinson will be elected. All the votes that Mr. Kelly can carry off will be more than supplied by accessions from the ranks of those who refuse to run with the machine, and prefer an incorruptible man to the nominee of either a Republican or a Democratic oligarchism.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Mr. Thurman must begin to suspect that the public discovered his political death before he was conscious of it himself.

Senator Wallace has undertaken to prevent Tilden from capturing the Pennsylvania Democracy for 1880. The job is several sizes too large for him.

David Davis is dispensing wisdom and soothing syrup at the agricultural fairs of Illinois, and has totally forgotten the existence of politics. Politics have also totally forgotten him.

Genial Mr. S. S. Cox accompanied John Kelly to Syracuse to assist at the disturbance. The chances are that even so indomitable a joker as he will not be able to see anything amusing in the result.—N. Y. Tribune.

Congressman Blackburn is the latest disciple to visit Mr. Tilden and be surprised at his robust health. He visited him at Yonkers, and was struck with the ease and agility with which Mr. Tilden tripped up several flights of stairs to show him the view from the cupola. With a fresh million and so light a pair of heels Mr. Tilden is in fine trim for the race in 1880.

Mr. Curtis Unhappy About Cornell.
Harper's Weekly (Rep.).

The Republican nomination for Governor of New York is an exceedingly unfortunate one, and all that has been said of the unwisdom of precisely such a nomination remains true. The importance of the result in this State, both of the election of this year and of the next, is such that it was the duty of all Republicans who understood it to select some candidate truly representative of its principles and purposes. It will not be contended that, with whatever excellencies of character, Mr. Cornell is such a representative. He has been long a familiar figure in the parties of the State, and whatever may be the personal and friendly regard entertained for him, it will be denied that it is an extraordinary nomination to be made by the Republican party in the State at this time.

Butler's Possibilities as Governor.
Boston Herald (Ind.)

There may be some guileless voters who propose to vote for Butler on State issues alone. Such should understand that Butler, with the Legislature against him, as it is sure to be, would be just about as influential as the codfish that hangs in Representatives Hall, and not a whit more ornamental. Should there be Butlerites in the Legislature, they would go for the largest grabs, as they did last year. No, Butler can do no good in the State House. His term as Governor, should he be elected, would only be remarkable for slang in the public documents and a bad odor in the lobbies.

As a Mint Julep.
Brooklyn Eagle.

The editor of the Okolona, Mississippi, States has come North to lecture. Naturally he heads for the extreme Republican States, where his style of talk is a mint julep to the stalwart throat.

Not Always Thus.
Brooklyn Eagle.

Nowadays, when the Republicans succeed in saving a Republican opposition, they set up a grand hurrah over it. This was not always thus.

The Okolona Ass.
New Orleans Democrat.

"Col. Harper," the editor of the Okolona States, has gone North on a lecturing tour, and was advertised to open his show in Chicago Saturday night last. Owing to her connection as a sort of upper servant with the Tilton family, Bessie Turner became so notorious and an object of such public curiosity that she took to the lecture field, or wrote a book, or something of that sort, and probably made a good thing of it. The age is sensational, its vicious appetite must be gratified, and numberless people, males and females, of the Bessie Turner stripe, with no other claim to popular notice than their connection with a murder, or a social scandal, or a political idiocy, have drawn vast crowds wherever they went to hear them gabble and see them exhibit themselves. The Okolona statesman, fraud or ass, is the latest recruit of this type to the army of lecturers, and will probably create quite a sensation, unless Governor Sprague or Link should accept an invitation for some showman, and through their relation to a sensation more indelicate, and hence more captivating to the Northern intellectual taste bear away from him the audience and the applause.

In a normal condition of public sentiment this Okolona fraud would excite no attention abroad, or only contempt and derision. Even if his utterances were sincere, no intelligent portion of any community would attach importance to, or pause a moment to consider such vaporing. But we live in extraordinary times. The issue of parties is not on great principles of State which underlie our government as it exists, nor upon questions of policy affecting the commercial industrial and moral interests of the people. The first object of the Republican party is to retain control of the government, and its second object is to transform the government into a centralized oligarchy.

To the Republican managers, therefore, a paper-like the Okolona States is a treasure, and an ass or knave like its editor is a more potent ally than the ablest statesman or debater they could possibly enlist in their cause. The Republican managers were not slow to perceive the value of this blatherskite, and if he was not their emissary at the start, no sensible man can doubt that he is now in their interest and in their pay. In Congress and on the hustings the Republicans have used the apparently furious vaporings of the Okolona sheet, and with much effect. It has been quoted by them as an influential journal, correctly representing the Southern Democracy. The speeches, with editorials of Republican papers containing these quotations and this statement, have been distributed in every nook and corner of the Northern States, and thousands of uninformed men, who would stand against the revolutionary purpose of the Republican party, are gathered under its banner through fear and hate of the very people who constitute the strongest element of the party which maintains the true principles of a vast majority of the American people. Thus thousands and thousands of votes have been deceived into the conviction that the spirit of secession inspires every Southern State, and they hold that it is better that the Republican party should centralize the government than that the South should overthrow it and plunge us into another civil war.

Fortunately for the Party.
Rochester Herald (Ind.)

There seems to be no good reason why the Democrats should not renominate Governor Robinson. He has made as good a Governor as they can find—plain, honest, and courageous. His administration affords an excellent fighting ground for that party. It is the most defensible thing it has, and good headway could be made in sustaining it against Republican assaults. Fortunately, for the party, it is likely to have him for its candidate.

VEGETINE

Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the Whole System,
ITS MEDICINAL QUALITIES ARE

Alterative, Tonic, Solvent and Diuretic.

Vegetine is made exclusively from the juices of carefully-selected barks, roots and herbs, and so strongly concentrated that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases, Canker, Faintness at the Stomach, and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Sciatica, Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout, and Spinal Complaints, can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Disease the Skin, Pustules, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Scaldhead, and Ringworm, VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure.

For Pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints Dropsy, Female Weakness, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organ, allays inflammation, cures ulcer a tion, and regulates the bowels.

For Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness, and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has ever given such perfect satisfaction as the Vegetine. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, Vegetine is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable BLOOD PURIFIER yet placed before the public.

The Best Evidence.

The following letter from Rev. E. S. Best Pastor of M. E. Church, Natick, Mass., will be read with interest by many physicians; also those suffering from the same disease as afflicted the son of the Rev. E. S. Best. No person can doubt this testimony, as there is no doubt about the curative powers of Vegetine.

NATICK, MASS., Jan. 1, 1874.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir, We have good reason for regarding your Vegetine a medicine of the greatest value. We feel assured that it has been the means of saving our son's life. He is now seventeen years of age. For the last two years he has suffered from necrosis of his leg, caused by scrofulous affection, and was so far reducee that nearly all who saw him thought his recovery impossible. A council of able physicians could give us but the faintest hope of his ever rallying; two of the number declaring that he was beyond the reach of human remedies, that even amputation could not save him, as he had not vigor enough to endure the operation. Just then we commenced giving him Vegetine, and from that time to the present he has been continuously improving. He has lately resumed his studies, thrown away his crutches and cane, and walks about cheerfully and strong.

Though there is still some discharge from the opening where the limb was lanced, we have the fullest confidence that in a little time he will be perfectly cured.

He has taken about three dozen bottles of Vegetine, but lately uses but little, as he declares that he is too well to be taking medicine.

Respectfully yours,
E. S. BEST,
MRS. L. C. F. BEST.

COMICALITIES.

"Merrett" claims that the smallest Chicago muff is made by using a flour barrel for the frame.

A little three-year old boy ran to his mother the other day with a bunch of corn silks crying, "Me dot some hair for papa's bald head." There were several ladies by, and the father didn't appreciate the joke exactly.—Binghamton Republican.

Bridget (to caller): "Will ye kape still a minit while I look at ye?— No, Misses haint to home. She told me if a woman come with a wart on the end of a red nose to say she want to home, and there's no mistaking that wart.—Andrews' Bazar.

"Let there be no difference between us," said he, as he awkwardly sidled over the intervening space on the sofa. But let there be deference between us," she replied, as she quietly withdrew to a neighboring chair.—Ned Gillespie.

"I'll subscribe for that paper," said Vanderbilt, laying down an agricultural paper he had been reading. "Its editor is a man of high attainments." His eye had caught an article headed, "Water your stock regularly."—Des Moines Register.

"Gath" says any fool can write paragraphs, but we don't believe it until we see a few specimens from "Gath's" pen.—Middletown Transcript. Why know you not that George Alfred can't drop his quill short of a column? With all his experience, he has never learned the first principle of journalism, viz: condensation.

Of Benjamin F. Taylor, the Chicago poet, and his latest volume, a Western reviewer says: He is sparkling, brilliant, pathetic, tender and humorous by turns, and his book, Summer Savory, shows that his pen has not forgotten its cunning or is his imagery a whit the less prolific.

A man in Kansas, who represents himself a "practical farmer," visited all the fairs with a prize pumpkin, and took the premiums every time. It measured seven feet around and weighed 230 pounds. Several days ago, at Council Grove, a rival farmer attempted to tap the pumpkin, in the absence of its owner, to get some of the seeds, and he discovered that it was made of wood. This beats the ingenious Connecticut invention of bass-wood cucumber seed.

The Gatling Murder.

Murfreesboro Enquirer.

The coroners's jury were not long in finding the guilty party in the atrocious Gatling murder, which took place on Tuesday of last week. It was ascertained that one W. H. Vann—who is a lunatic, and has been several times confined in jail in consequence of being unable to get in the insane asylum—had that morning gone in that direction with a club and a double barrel shot gun. Upon examination it was ascertained that he had the evening previous threatened to kill the deceased for his not allowing him to ride with him from Winton. It was also found that Vann's clothes were bloody, and that he had torn his coat-tail off to prevent the blood being seen. The gun he had was his father's, and was loaded with squirrel shot, instead of with buck shot, as it was on the night previous. Vann was placed in jail to await trial at the October term of the Superior Court.

To a representative of the Enquirer he made a full confession of the crime and the manner of performing it, on Monday last; giving as his excuse, "that he was in trouble, and that he thought by killing Henry Gatling he would get out of it." A jury will say at October Coure whether he is guilty of murder or not.

Cuticura

REMEDIES

Have speedily and permanently cured Humors of the Skin and Scalp of Children and Infants afflicted since birth.

The treatment prescribed in such cases is mild doses of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, a perfectly safe yet powerful blood purifier, and the external use of CUTICURA, the great skin cure. The CUTICURA SOAP should be the only soap applied to the diseased skin for cleansing purposes.

Humor on a Child

Since Birth Cured, after faithful Medical Treatment had failed.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen, My little son, two years of age, has had a humor on one side of his face since he was born, which during the last four months has spread over the entire side of the face, the child ear, and side of the head. It must have itched and irritated him a great deal, as he scratched the surface all the time, no matter what was applied. I used many remedies by advice of friends and my physician without benefit until I found CUTICURA, which immediately allayed the itching and inflammation, and entirely cured him. Respectfully, JOHN L. SURRY.

With Walworth Manufacturing Co.

BOSTON, April 15, 1878.

NOTE. Once cured, the skin may be rendered soft and fair by using the Cuticura Soap exclusively for toilet or nursery purposes.

CHILDREN AND INFANTS.

More Cures of Skin and Scalp Affections by the Cuticura Remedies.

Fred. Rohrer, Esq., Cashier Stock Growers' National Bank, Pueblo, Colo ado, writes: "I am so well pleased with its effects on my baby, that I cannot afford to be without it in my house. It is a wonderful cure, and is bound to become very popular as soon as its virtues are known to the masses."

J. S. Weeks, Esq., Town Treasurer, St. Albans, Vt., says in a letter dated May 28: "It works to a charm on my baby's face and head. Cured the head entirely, and has nearly cleaned the face of sores. I have recommend it to several, and Dr. Plant has ordered it for them."

M. M. Chick, Esq., 41 Franklin St., Boston, says: "My little daughter, eighteen months old, has what the doctors call Eczema. We have tried 'most everything, and at last have used CUTICURA, and she is almost a new child, and we feel very happy."

Prickly Heat.

Incidental to the Texan Climate.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Enclosed please find one dollar for a large box of CUTICURA. The small one that I received some time ago has been very efficacious, especially in Prickly Heat or Rash, as some people call it. I am noising it about.

Yours truly, THOMAS W. BUCKLEY.

MASON, Texas, Sept. 22, 1878.

CUTICURA is a most valuable external application. It heals all cuts, bruises, and abrasions of the skin, restores the hair when destroyed by scalp diseases, removes dandruff and keeps the scalp clean and the hair soft and pliable. It is as agreeable as it is effective, and is aptly assisted, in every case by the CUTICURA SOAP, which is particularly recommended to mothers for cleansing the skin and scalp of infants and children. It is Toilet as well as Medicinal, and is the most fragrant and refreshing Soap for the nursery and bath of any these prepared.

Parents have our assurance that these remedies contain nothing injurious to the youngest infant, evidence of which may be found in the certificates of Dr. Hayes and Prof. Merrick accompanying each remedy.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and are for sale by all Druggists. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes $1. Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes, 75 cents.

TUTT'S PILLS

SYMPTOMS OF A

TORPID LIVER.

Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Pain in the Head, with a dull sensation in the back part, Pain under the shoulderblade, fullness after eating, with a disinclination to exertion of body or mind, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, with a feeling of having neglected some duty, Weariness, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, Yellow Skin, Headache generally over the right eye, Restlessness with fitful dreams, highly colored Urine.

IF THESE WARNINGS ARE UNHEEDED, SERIOUS DISEASES WILL SOON BE DEVELOPED.

TUTT'S PILLS are especially adapted to such cases, one dose effects such a change of feeling as to astonish the sufferer.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. If the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will soon follow.

Dr. I. Guy Lewis, Fulton, Ark., says:

"After a practice of 25 years, I pronounce TUTT'S PILLS the best anti-bilious medicine ever made."

Rev. F. R. Osgood, New York, says:

"I have had Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach and Nervousness. I never had any medicine to do me so much good as TUTT'S PILLS. They are as good as represented."

STOMACH

BITTERS

Fever and Agne is most common in the spring, but most severe in the fall and winter. It is strictly a malarious disease, and so surely as the Bitters are adopted, so surely will the individual who adopts this precaution be exempted from its pains and penalties. Add to this its value as a stomachic and anti-bilious agent and who will venture to gainsay its claims to the first place among family medicines.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Pinafore to-night.

——Those geese again!

——Pinafore this afternoon.

——Two marriage licenses issued yesterday.

——The cotton weigher seemed busy yesterday.

——About 150 bales of new cotton in the city yesterday.

——Cotton sold yesterday for from 10 6-8 to 11¼ cents.

——Yesterday's revenue receipts amounted to $6,140.84.

——No criminal cases before the Justices of the Peace yesterday.

——Dull times yesterday with the court house officials—not an item.

——Only $10,000 of old bonds received for exchange at the State Treasury yesterday.

——Telephonic communication is expected to be perfected in a few days. The batteries are being fixed up.

——Captain Denson says the prospects are very encouraging indeed for a most successful fair this year.

——Exchange Place presented a business appearance yesterday. The fall trade may be said to have fairly opened.

——Mr. C. M. Busbee leaves this morning for Baltimore to attend the Odd Fellows Convention to be held at that place.

——The clerk of Columbus county Superior Court yesterday drew $120.00 pension money due Daniel Long of that county.

——The privileges of the stalls, refreshment saloons etc., for the Fair beginning on the 13th prox. will be rented out next Tuesday at 4 o'clock P. M.

——The telephone communication was yesterday completed and lots of gossip and foolish talk passed over the wires. It is a great invention and a most valuable convenience.

——A double hanging will take place at Statesville next Friday, unless the Governor interferes. He has so far refused to respite or commute their sentences. The condemned are both white men.

——Captain W. L. Thornburg, Secretary of the North Carolina Railroad is, and has been for some time, extremely ill. His correspondents will thus see the cause of delay in answering their communications. It is to be hoped he will soon recover.

——Mr. Harry Buckley, leading man of the Templeton Star Alliance, is a native of Raleigh, and grandson of John T. Savage, one of the first jewelers who settled in this place. We welcome him back to his birth-place.

——The new two-cent postal card has made its appearance. It has two stamps—one at each end—and space for two messages. The sender occupies one of these, and the return correspondent the other. One stamp is canceled at the office from which it is sent, and the other from the office at which it is returned. The cards will soon be in general circulation.

York's Grammar.

Rev. L. Branson, of this city, is the publisher of the fourth edition of an analytical, synthetical and illustrated school grammar, prepared by the Rev. Dr. Brantley York, Professor of Logic and Rhetoric, in Rutherford College, N. C.

Dr. York is now seventy-six years of age, and has been totally blind for the past thirty years. He is said to be a very profound scholar, and this grammar comes well recommended. Read Mr. Branson's advertisement in another column.

Picnic and Barbecue at Bond's Hill.

The NEWS acknowledges the receipt of an invitation to be present at a barbecue and pic-nic to be given at Bond's Hill, near Kinston on the 18th. It is gotten up in compliment to the Elm City Rifles, New Berne Grays and Goldsboro Rifles, and promises to be a most enjoyable affair. Manager Lieut. B. F. Nunn; Committe of Arrangements, Lieut. H. The Templetons Last Night.

This company performed "Prince Napoleon" to a crowded house at Tucker Hall last night. The play was well rendered; the caste and scenery good, and taken altogether it was a first class performance.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock, they will give a grand matinee and to-night Pinafore will be put upon the boards.

John Templeton is good in almost any role, and he always draws crowded houses in Raleigh. The NEWS bespeaks a full house to greet Pinafore to-night. This company embraces four of the original actors in this play, and those attending will see it done up in the best imaginable style.

The Glass Ball Gun Club Match.

Of the seven contestants who were to have shot for the gold medal, only three came to the score. The match was shot under the Bogardus rules. Mr. W. P. Batchelor acted as referee. Twenty-five balls each, from two traps, ten yards apart, eighteen yards rise. The score stood:

John C. Fuller	shot at	25,	hit 16.
John Creech	" "	"	" 15.
E. B. Engelhard	" "	"	" 21

The match and medal were awarded to Mr. E. B. Engelhard until the next monthly contest, when it is hoped that more will compete. Considering that this is the first glass ball shooting for the season, and that the traps were pulled in quick succession, with exception of the last five, which were pulled together, the score is very creditable.

Donations to the North Carolina Agricultural Society.

The following are donations for the 19th Annual State Fair, October 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th, acknowledged by C. B. Denson, Secretary, in behalf of the Executive Committee.

250 apple trees, 3-5 feet,	$25.00
250 peach trees, 3-5 feet,	25.00
100 grape vines,	8.00
2,000 strawberry plants,	8.00
	$66.00

Given by S. Otho Wilson, Esq., proprietor of the Raleigh Nurseries. The nurseries of Mr. Wilson have been recently removed from Henderson to Raleigh, and the above trees are home grown, and of sorts adopted to the needs of this soil and climate. It will be observed that the valuation is placed very low. Mr. Wilson deserves credit for this handsome gift, delivered to the Fair Grounds, without expense to the society.

One lot of Chautauqua Tin Lined Butter Packages, from five to fifty pounds, given by James H. Hotchkin, Prattsburg, Steuben county, New York. It is claimed that these packages preserve butter, so that after the lapse of six months, it is still sweet and fresh as even.

One selection soaps, given by John F. Wilkins, manufacturer, 118 Fenchurch street, Norfolk, Va. Here we have a contribution from a southern manufacturer, who is sending into the market a valuable article, and desires to open a trade with North Carolina. We are told by gentlemen of Norfolk that it is deserving of Southern support.

The Beaufort Fund.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
BEAUFORT, N. C., Sept. 11, 1879.

Correspondence of the News.

Taking it for granted that no further aid will be extended to the destitute of this town and county, I herewith send you for publication a statement of every cent which has come into my hands, or with which I have had anything to do:

Received from Salem, N. C., through James H. Pool,	$ 1 00
Received from the Mayor of Greensboro,	25 72
Received from St. Barnabas P. E. Church, Greensboro, thro' Rev. E. M. Forbes,	6 55
Received from the Mayor of Durham, N. C., through W. F. Howland,	36 00
Received from W. P. Canaday, Wilmington, N. C., through Dr. Manny and W. B. Duncan,	150 00
Received from the Misses Mordecai, Raleigh, N. C., ($10 each),	20 00
Received from Mayor Manly, New Berne, N. C.,	35 80
Received from Gainsville, Ga.,	1 00
Received from Mrs. Rufus M. Johnston, Charlotte, N. C.,	10 00
Received from Miss Annie M. Donnell, through James A. Bryan, New Berne, N, C.,	50 00
	$336 07

Colonel Thomas M. Holt, Haw River, Alamance county, eight bags of flour, 98 pounds each.

Of the money received, I turned over to the county authorities $125.00, to be used by them for the destitute of the county. This left $211.07 for the benefit of those in town. Seventy-seven persons drew upon this $211.07, which gives less than $3 to each sufferer (I mean the average) in town, admitting that every cent has been paid out. When we consider the extent of the damage—the number of those whose houses or chimneys were either entirely destroyed or badly wrecked; the inability of many to get material, such as lime, brick, lumber, etc., to say nothing of pay for labor, it will at once appear that the aid extended has not been adequate to do more than supply a little food while the recipient might be engaged in repairing damages as best he or she could. Our town is built of combustible material, and in consequence of the dilapidated condition of many buildings, especially half demolished chimneys, I fear the consequences when cold weather comes on.

The flour so generously donated by Colonel Holt was distributed in both town and county, and no one person or family was given over twenty pounds. So far as the distribution under my personal supervision is concerned, the average was a little less than thirteen pounds.

In conclusion permit me to say that with the lights before me, I have done the best I could during the trying ordeal through which we have (not yet) passed, for I greatly fear that the worst suffering is yet to come. I have devoted my time and energies in aid of others without compensation of any kind. I have tried to merit gratitude, but in many instances I have failed even to get that. The only consolation I have is the consciousness of trying to benefit others, if I suffer myself.

Juvenile Books.

Messrs. Alfred Williams & Co., have just received a new lot of pretty, illustrated books for boys and girls. "The Nursery" is indeed one of the handsomest and best books ever published for the little folks. It is full of pictures and the stories are excellent, and the book will be a delight to children from five to ten years old.

Police Court.

Mayor Manly yesterday issued a warrant for Dempsey Barnes, who is charged with the larceny of a pair of shoes. He was captured, and occupies rooms at the station house, awaiting his trial, which will take place at 10 o'clock this morning before the Mayor.

Rare Worm.

New Berne Nut Shell, 12th.

Our young friend, Walter Fulford, placed on our table last night a rare specimen of the worm family, which was found, with several companions of like ilk on the farm of Mr. Joseph L. Rhem, near this city. The insect is a perfect model of beauty, is about 5½ inches in length, one inch in diameter, is of a green color, transversely banded across each of the rings with pale blue. There is a blue-black spot on each side of the third ring. The head and legs are orange colored. It has ten long hornlike spines on the fore part of the body, which are orange colored, with the tips and the points surrounding them black. Its body is covered with shorter spines, which are black in color.

We at once carried the insect to Dr. Berry, who is versed in all such, and we learned from him that it is a regal Walnut Moth, the technical name being ceratocampa regalis, one of the largest, most rare and withal the most magnificent of our moths. Notwithstanding the great size, formidable appearance, and menacing motions of this insect when handled, it is perfectly harmless and unable to sting or wound with its frightful horns

The curious can have a look at the insect by calling on friend Carpenter, of the Newbernian, who has it in his possession.

Slow Progress.

Elizabeth City Economist, 9th.

The work on the Elizabeth City and Norfolk railroad is now at the Currituck Run Swamp. We understand the work is progressing, but not so rapidly as was hoped would be the case at this time. The withdrawal of Dr. Haines from some unexplained reason, and the consequent leaving of the whole expense of the work upon the hands of Mr. Zephania Underwood, has retarded the work. But we have unabated faith and confidence in the character and statements of Mr. Underwood, and in the ultimate completion of the road; and the more confidence we have in our estimate of its benefits to our country and of its value as a pecuniary investment.

Seeking Buried Treasure.

Wilmington Star.

Tradition has it that in days long since gone by, when buccaneers and pirates swept the Atlantic of vessels richly freighted with treasures from the Indies and the Spanish Main, when Black Beard, Captain Kyd and other historic cut-throats and adventurers swooped down upon defenceless merchantmen, and made captive sailors and luckless passengers "walk the plank," these freebooters had their trysting place in and about the mouth of the Cape Fear river. Handed down from father to son, the story that countless treasures of gold and jewels lay buried somewhere in the swamps or sands below this city, time and again efforts have been made to find the mythical deposit. Even now the work goes on, and travelers over the county roads in that direction often see mysterious excavations by the roadside, and at night catch glimpses of weird-looking groups, furtively plying the pick and the spade, by the light of a torch, in quest of the hidden treasure. The mysterious seekers for these hoards of the freebooters are generally colored people, whose cupidity and superstitious fancies are worked upon by so-called diviners of their own color. No one has ever heard of their being rewarded for their toil and trouble, and in all probability no one ever will.

Sudden Death of a Young Lady.

Charlotte Observer, 12th.

Last night about 10 o'clock Miss Maggie E. Galloway, an attractive and popular young lady about seventeen years of age, daughter of Mrs. Goodwin, who lives on Church street between Sixth and Seventh, dropped dead in the sitting room of the dwelling without the slightest warning. She had been suffering for several weeks with whooping cough, but the disease was in no way considered dangerous. It is now thought that in a fit of coughing she broke a blood vessel which either leads to, or is very nearly connected with the brain, and from that cause died instantly. A physician was sent for as soon as the family returned from church, but life was extinct before his arrival.

Miss Galloway was a very interesting young lady, greatly beloved by all who knew her, and has been for some time a consistent and pious member of the Baptist church to which she was greatly attached. Just budding into womanhood, her untimely death not only leaves an aching void in her immediate family, but in the whole circle of her acquaintance.

JOB OSBORN. *

BOVINE, MISSISSIPPI, April 22, 1879.—The following correspondence will explain itself: A. WADDILL, Esq., LYNCHBURG, VA.—Dear Sir: Observing a certificate from you in reference to the "Iron and Alum Mass," of the Seven Springs, in Washington county, Va., in relation to its efficacy for Liver Diseases, would you have the kindness to inform me whether you used the "Mass" or the "Water;" also, a description of the symptoms and such other information as you may deem pertinent. I am a long-time sufferer with Liver Complaint, and naturally feel very anxious on the subject of a remedy that will afford me even temporary relief. Your early reply will greatly oblige, very respectfully,
WILLIAM BARR.

LYNCHBURG, Va., May 12, 1879.—WM. BARR, Esq., Bovine, Mississippi—Dear Sir: Your inquiry in regard to the "Liver case" which was effectually cured in my family from using the "Seven Springs Mass," is before me. The case referred to in my certificate was that of my wife's sister, who is now in her 80th year, and has been a member of my family for the last 27 years. She had been afflicted with Liver Disease for 30 years, sometimes almost dying with pains in the back, breast, and heaviness of the chest, heart-burns (intensely), sick stomach, vomiting, &c. I procured a few bottles of the "Mass" for her, and very soon after she began the use of it, her health commenced to get better, and she continued steadily to improve, and at this writing, so old, seemingly in as good health as a person who had never been afflicted with these diseases. She attributes her cure entirely to the efficacy of the "Seven Springs Mass." I regard it one of the greatest family medicines we have access to, not only for such diseases as above indicated, but for various other complaints for which it is recommended. Hoping these answers satisfactory, I am, very truly, A. WADDILL, Proprietor Lynchburg News.
